

Steel Union Votes To Sign Non-Red Oaths

Say T-H Law Will Remain For A While

New York, July 27—(AP)—The CIO steelworkers, the nation's largest union, agreed today to bring its million members into compliance with the Taft-Hartley Act by signing non-Communist affidavits.

The union announced it had reluctantly come to the conclusion that the act would not be repealed by this Congress and that it must avail itself of the law's election procedures and other provisions. This it could not do without signing the affidavits.

The international executive board of the steelworkers, voted unanimously to direct union officers to comply with the act after hearing a speech by Union President Philip Murray at a closed session.

Murray has been one of the bitterest foes of the affidavit requirement although he has led in fighting communist influence in the CIO, which he also heads, and in his own union.

The board's action came the day before a presidential fact-finding board opens hearings in the dispute between the union and the nation's steel companies.

The union is demanding a wage boost which has not been specified, pensions, and insurance benefits. The presidential board plans to take evidence for 15 days, then present a report to Mr. Truman by Aug. 28.

The board's recommendations will not be binding on either side. However, the proceedings have averted a strike in the basic industry for 60 days, or until Sept. 14.

It is possible that the union will attempt some move before the National Labor Relations board against the companies in the wage-pension dispute after it has completed compliance under the Taft-Hartley law by filing the affidavits.

For instance, the steelworkers could charge the steel firms with failure to bargain under the law. Murray has accused the industry recently of failing to bargain on pensions and some other matters.

A resolution adopted by the union's executive board denounced the Taft-Hartley law as "this evil statute" and said:

"The United Steelworkers of America dedicates its entire membership to the unfinished task of repealing the Taft-Hartley act and restoring the Wagner act with improvements to safeguard labor's basic rights."

But, the resolution said, the officers were directed to sign the non-communist affidavits "in order to safeguard the interests of the membership of the union and to go forward with the organization of the unorganized within our jurisdiction."

Shaw Describes Stalin As Mainstay Of Peace In Europe

London, July 27—(AP)—George Bernard Shaw described Prime Minister Stalin of Russia tonight as "the mainstay of peace in Europe" and charged that the western powers' commanders in Berlin started the cold war.

Shaw, the Irish playwright who celebrated his 83rd birthday yesterday, said the Russians would show Stalin if they thought he was trying to start another war.

He said the western commanders in Berlin "began the cold war by annoying the Russian occupants in every possible way short of opening fire on them."

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, Shaw charged, "started all this panic-stricken nonsense by declaring that we have the right to be in Berlin and mean to stay there, and that communism is the enemy."

His views were set down in a letter to Konni Zilliacus, member of Parliament, who recently was kicked out of Britain's ruling labor party for opposing its foreign policy. Zilliacus, a severe critic of the North Atlantic pact, made the letter public.

Mrs. F. D. R. Denies Bias In Letter To Spellman

Hyde Park, N. Y., July 27—(AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, accused by Francis Cardinal Spellman of anti-Catholic bias, "unworthy of an American mother," told the press today that God is the final judge of a human being's worth.

She said she holds no bias against the Catholic church and that she will continue to speak out for the things she believes are right.

Mrs. Roosevelt sent the cardinal a point-by-point reply to last Friday's letter in which he assailed her opposition to the use of federal funds to aid church or private schools.

"Spiritual leadership," Mrs. Roosevelt told the cardinal, "should remain spiritual leadership and the temporal power should not become too important in any church."

"I have no intention of attacking you personally, nor of attacking the Roman Catholic church, but I shall, of course, continue to stand for the things in our government which I think are right."

"I assure you that I have no sense of being an 'unworthy American mother.' The final judgment, my dear Cardinal Spellman, of the worthiness of all human beings is in the hands of God."

Mrs. Roosevelt declared that "domination of education or of government by any one religious faith is never a happy arrangement for the people."

And she said control "by the Roman Catholic church of great areas of land" in Europe has not always "led to happiness for the people of those countries."

The widow of the late president wrote from Hyde Park as an increasing number of religious and lay leaders took sides in the controversy over the question of aiding private and church schools.

Mrs. Roosevelt said last week that her reply to the cardinal would be private. Her secretary, Miss Malvina Thompson, said today the former first lady changed her mind because of many requests that she make her answer public.

British Financial Deficit Likely To Cause ERP Trouble

London, July 27—(AP)—Britain's latest dollar deficit estimate of $1,518,000,000 for the 1949-50 fiscal year appeared likely tonight to touch off a lively scramble for Marshall plan funds in Europe.

Treasury officials said new sterling area deficit figures for that amount, $404,000,000 over those of three months ago, had been sent to the Organization of European Economic Cooperation (OEEC) in Paris.

The officials denied reports abroad that Britain had asked an additional half-billion dollars or more in Marshall plan funds. But they acknowledged they hoped the deficit figures would be used as a yardstick for Britain's needs.

Government stocks dropped sharply on the London Stock Exchange today for the third consecutive day. Millions of pounds were chopped off the value of the securities.

Financial writers generally blamed the slump on British labor troubles and lack of faith in the Labor government's ability to pull the country out of its financial crisis.

The OEEC, formed last year, is designed to coordinate European recovery moves and assure the efficient distribution of American aid under the Marshall plan.

Find Body Of Man In Wrecked Auto Near Train Track

Baker, Ill., July 27—(AP)—The body of Alvin Nelson, 43, was found today in the wreckage of his automobile beside a Burlington railroad trestle. Authorities believe he was struck by a train and carried half a mile in the wreckage.

Early today several Burlington freight cars left the tracks near Earlville, further west along the line. Officials retrace the tracks in an effort to determine cause of the derailment, and discovered Nelson's body and the wreckage of his automobile.

Railroad authorities said they pulled Nelson drove his car into the side of the freight, which dragged it along the right of way. The derailment, they believed, was caused by the accident.

Nelson resided at Sandwich. Baker is in LaSalle county.

U.N. Hits Secret Witness Who Said U.N. Run By Reds

Lake Success, July 27—(AP)—The United Nations made public today a protest to Secretary of State Acheson against what it called "irresponsible and unfounded" attacks on some of the 3,000 U.N. staff workers.

Soon afterward the State Department issued a statement in Washington challenging the testimony before a senate sub-committee which caused the protest—the declaration by a mystery witness that Lie's agent is terrorized by Communist agents.

Lincoln White, the State department press officer, issued the statement. He said: "We are confident that the U.N. would not tolerate a situation like that described by the anonymous witness."

The letter of protest was the sharpest reaction by the U.N. to criticism in any member country. It was written by American-born Byron Price, acting secretary-general. He said in effect the internal affairs of the U.N. are not business of a senate sub-committee.

Price, former director of censorship for the United States, dispatched the letter to Acheson yesterday. He informed Acheson the U.N. is deeply concerned and asked for the U.S. government's views on the matter.

Charge Man Sold Daughter For $500

Bessemer, Ala., July 27—(AP)—An unemployed miner was accused today of selling his two-year-old daughter for $500 and using the money to buy an automobile.

Police chief Lacey Alexander said he is investigating reports the father also offered a second daughter, age seven months, for adoption for $600.

The miner, Layman Alvin Edwards, 26, was held for investigation.

Alexander said Edwards signed a statement admitting he received $500 from a restaurant owner who has started proceedings to adopt the little girl, Jewel.

French National Assembly Approves Atlantic Alliance

Paris, July 27—(AP)—The French national assembly approved the North Atlantic Pact today despite fears the pact will be a scrap of paper unless backed up by American arms.

The vote of 395 to 189 for ratification came early this morning after a tumultuous all-night debate.

The debate was strictly on east-west lines.

The communists tirelessly repeated their charge that the pact is an aggressive step against Soviet Russia.

The Non-Communists retorted that it is purely defensive.

The pact will go before the council of the Republic, the upper House of Parliament, for expedited approval within the next few days. Then it will be signed by President Vincent Auriol.

After the vote one of Gen. De Gaulle's followers, Deputy Rene Capitant, proposed an amendment that would delay ratification until France had clarification from the United States on:

"The furnishing of arms and modern equipment susceptible of giving to French armies the means of effectively filling the duties of defense and assistance comprised in the Atlantic pact."

Automatic Voting Devices To Be Used In Illinois House

Springfield, Ill., July 27—(AP)—When the ponderous Illinois House resumes lawmaking in 1951, roll calls will be speeded up by use of automatic voting devices.

Governor Stevenson today signed into law a bill appropriating $86,000 for purchase and installation of the new electrical equipment.

The automatic devices are expected to cut the time consumed in polling the 153 House members to one minute or less. Some roll calls under the old voice voting system took two and even three hours, although the average for routine bills was between five and ten minutes.

The Senate, with only 51 members, has not been troubled in this way and has avoided logjams of work like those of the House has run into at the tailend of biennial sessions. It will continue the voice method of voting.

One or both chambers in legislatures of 19 other states have automatic voting devices. Nearby states that have them include Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and Missouri.

House Group Asks 750,000 Be Added To Old Age Pension

Washington, July 27—(AP)—The House Ways and Means committee today called for repeal of the "Gearhart amendment" and restoration of about 750,000 persons to the old age insurance rolls under the social security program.

The committee action, taken on a 15 to 10 party line vote, was a preliminary victory for President Truman although the House and Senate still must act upon the repeal.

The Republican-controlled 80th Congress approved an amendment to the social security act offered by former Rep. Gearhart (R-Calif.). It excluded about 750,000 persons from the social security insurance. These included commission salesmen, life insurance salesmen, piece-workers, truck drivers, taxicab drivers, miners, journeymen tailors and others.

Mr. Truman promptly vetoed the legislation, but the GOP controlled Congress overrode him.

USNE Hits Illinois Editors Who Get On State Payroll

Washington, July 27—(AP)—The text of the conclusions set forth by the board of directors of the American society of newspaper editors in its report on "employment of newspapermen by the State of Illinois," (about 550)

There is substantial evidence of a long-standing political custom in Republican and Democratic administrations in the State of Illinois of rewarding some newspaper publishers and their employees, along with other citizens working for the party, by jobs on the state payroll involving little or no service to the public.

We deplore this practice by any government as an improper use of public funds.

We condemn the acceptance of such funds by newspapermen as unethical and as contrary to the public responsibilities and obligations of the press.

In the process of our investigation, certain facts became evident which we believe place in clear perspective the malpractice of a few newspapermen against the background of political custom in the state.

Some 40,000 names on the state payroll during the eight-year administration of former Governor Dwight Green were checked against the names of about 800 newspapermen. Exactly 51 newspapermen were found on the payrolls.

A majority of these 51, in the opinion of the ASNE investigating committee, held state jobs that were either outright sinecures or jobs in which their duties were entirely or primarily political. But there were among them men who held legitimate positions, widely known to the public, performing services to the state against which there is no valid criticism.

Jury Acquits Girl In Shooting Of Married Lover, 53

Waukegan, Ill., July 27—(AP)—A jury tonight acquitted 17 year old Joyce Schumaker of a charge of murdering her 53 year old married lover.

After the verdict was announced, the thin, nervous high school girl exclaimed:

"I feel wonderful. It is a wonderful surprise. I have never stopped praying in four months."

Earlier, Joyce had testified she fatally shot Carl Reeder, 53, a clerk in the high school she attended, but the girl insisted the shooting was accidental.

She told the court she had been intimate with Reeder before she knew he was married.

The jury of six women and six men returned its verdict about three hours after receiving the case for deliberation.

The jurors later disclosed they stood 11-1 for acquittal on their first ballot, and that the dissenting juror changed his vote on the second and final ballot.

Circuit Judge William M. Carroll immediately ordered the girl freed. She had been imprisoned since Reeder's shooting in his automobile on a Lake Michigan beach last April 4.

Judge Shoots Once Close Associate, Now Bitter Rival

Atlanta, July 27—(AP)—An Atlanta judge early today wounded in the face his once close associate, now a bitter opponent in suits involving divorce, slander and income tax.

Police reported Fulton civil court judge Robert Carpenter, 44, fired five times at John Lockwood, 53, a lawyer.

Then, the officers said, Carpenter chased the wounded man until he fell into a mud-bottomed excavation, 40 feet deep.

A hospital reported Lockwood was in satisfactory condition.

Judge Carpenter was booked on a charge of shooting at another, and was released from jail on $500 bond.

Chief civil court judge Quincy Arnold in effect suspended Carpenter from the bench. Arnold said no more cases would be scheduled before Carpenter until the charge against him is disposed of.

Says 3-Day Work Week Will Cause Higher Coal Prices

Washington, July 27—(AP)—A coal industry official told Senators today that John L. Lewis' decree of a three-day week for his miners will inevitably cause higher coal prices.

The warning came from Lee G. Gunter, of Knoxville, Tenn., president of the Southern Appalachian Coal operators association.

Gunter told the senate banking committee that the abbreviated work week, ordered by Lewis on June 30, is raising the cost of coal production at least 50 cents a ton.

The operators must certainly pass at least part of this on to the consumers," he said.

Wryly, Gunter observed that "collective bargaining has become collective clubbing" when it comes to dealing with Lewis' United Mine Workers. He said the union serves "ultimatums" on the operators.

Similar views were expressed by Rolla D. Campbell, of Huntington, W. Va., counsel for the Island Creek Coal Co.

US Transportation Safest Last Year

Chicago, July 27—(AP)—U.S. transportation was safer last year than at any time during the last 10 years, the national safety council says.

The combined death rate for passenger automobiles, taxis, buses, trains and air liners was 18 deaths per 100,000,000 passenger miles.

A passenger mile represents one passenger carried one mile.

Comparative records have been kept only during the last decade.

The railroads had the lowest death rate—0.13 per 100,000,000 passenger miles. Buses were second, with a rate of 0.18.

The airplane rate was 1.3, and that for passenger automobiles and taxis 2.1.

Pact's Military Chiefs To Meet To Map Plans

Divided Senate Sends Aid Bill Back To Group

Washington, July 27—(AP)—A confused and divided Senate sent the big foreign aid bill back to committee today after a bitter dispute over earmarking $2,000,000,000 for the purchase of surplus U. S. crops.

The unexpected development delayed action on $3,380,000 in current Marshall plan funds for European recovery and a number of other overseas aid items, including $900,000,000 for the costs of government and relief in occupied areas.

The bill, carrying a total of $5,797,724,000, has been under debate since Monday.

Vice President Barkley, the Senate's presiding officer, said the surprise development should not be interpreted as a denial of aid for Europe.

"This was a technical parliamentary situation that doesn't affect the merits of the bill," he told reporters.

He said he thinks the bill will pass eventually. It was anybody's guess, however, how long it would stay this time in the appropriations committee, or in what kind of shape it would emerge.

Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn.) of the appropriations committee said the bill might not come up for a vote again before all other appropriation measures have been acted upon. This could mean a delay of several weeks, in which time the European cooperation administration which administers the recovery program might exhaust its funds.

McKellar said emergency funds could be supplied by resolution, but such a move would have to originate in the House.

Today had been expected to bring a decision on the amendment offered by Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) to nail down $2,000,000,000 of the money for the purchase of surplus farm crops in this country. Of this, $1,500,000,000 was to come out of the ECA funds and $500,000,000 out of the army's share for expenses in occupied areas.

Hunt Too Ill To Testify In 'Five Percenter' Probe

Washington, July 27—(AP)—James V. Hunt, key figure in a senate investigation of "five percenters," was described today as too ill to testify for a while.

A special senate investigating subcommittee had hoped to begin public hearings on the case next week. But now the inquiry may be delayed because Hunt's physician has notified the investigators that Hunt is sick.

The senate probe was touched off by the statement of Paul Grindle, a Massachusetts manufacturer, that he paid $100,000 to Hunt for help in seeking a government contract.

Hunt is a former army officer and war assets administration employee.

Grindle told the New York Herald Tribune that Hunt listed among his close friends the names of President Truman's military aide, Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, and two other major generals—Herman Fledman, army quartermaster general, and Alden H. Waitt, chief of the chemical corps. Fledman and Waitt have been suspended.

Dog Knocks Blind Mistress Down To Save Her From Car

Chicago, July 27—(AP)—"Queenie," a Boxer guide dog, knocked her blind mistress down in the middle of the street today. But she did so to save her from being struck by an automobile.

The woman, Norine McNichols, 47, suffered bruises on her right leg and hip. She was released after hospital treatment.

When the dog saw the car approaching, she lurched against Miss McNichols, knocking her out of the automobile's path.

The dog was obtained at the Seeing Eye school at Morristown, N. J. in 1945. Miss McNichols has been blind since 1943. She is a sales engineer for an electrical appliance firm.

Nationals Admit New Red Victories In Hunan Province

Canton, July 27—(AP)—The Chinese Nationalists admitted new Communist gains in vital Hunan province today. They set up an anti-Red Moslem warlord as military-political chief of China's vast northwest.

The Nationalists reported the loss of Linli, 125 miles northwest of Beihuan would mean the end of the sieged Changsha, capital of the Hunan rice bowl. A Red sweep through Nationalist area all the way south to Canton, the refugee capital.

Government reinforcements were rushed to Changsha, rail center on the Canton-Hankow line 25 miles south of Changsha. Nationalist sources said, however, the Reds were only one-half mile east of Chuchow.

The executive Yuan confirmed the appointment of Moslem Gen. Ma Pu-Fang as director of military and political headquarters in the northwest.

TAKES OFF COATS

London, July 27—(AP)—For the first time in history, perspiring reporters working in the House of Commons shed their coats today and rolled up their sleeves. The house sergeant at arms gave them formal permission after they made a special plea because of the 80 degree heat—abnormally warm for Britain.

DROWNS IN MISSISSIPPI

Galena, Ill., July 27—(AP)—John Matthews, about 65, drowned today in the Mississippi river at a ferry landing three miles west of here. Joe Davies county sheriff Percy Hutchison said Matthews rented boats to fishermen.

RETIRED CLERK DIES

Sterling, Ill., July 27—(AP)—Eugene P. Andreas, 71, retired Sterling post office clerk, died at his home yesterday after a five weeks' illness. Funeral services will be held here at 2:30 p.m. Friday.

IT'S NICE TO SEE THE FOLKS AGAIN

The ritual of family reunions is exemplified no better anywhere than in Central Illinois. Families could assemble in palatial mansions; dine on caviar; be waited upon by liveried servants—but they would have no better time than around a picnic table at Nichols park, with fried chicken, lemonade and watermelon on the menu.

Hundreds of families in this section of Illinois look forward to these annual communions. Each Sunday this month and next, and in the early autumn, reunions will hold sway in parks and recreation grounds. Nichols park in Jacksonville, Fry park at Carrollton, the Lions park at White Hall, Monument park at Winchester, the Beards-town recreation park, and other popular gathering places, will be crowded with picnickers. Family groups will range from a half dozen persons, just out for a good time, to imposing groups of 100 or more, who have well organized family associations, with committees each year to arrange for the reunion.

Events of this kind promote happiness. No one can attend a family reunion without getting more out of it than the food. There is fellowship, a renewal of the ties which bind families together, from parents and children on down the line to grandchildren, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Often the feast is followed by an informal program during which a record of the family for the preceding year is read. Births, deaths and marriages of interest to the family are reviewed, though most of those present are familiar with the facts. The younger generations slip away to the swimming pool or softball diamond, while the older folks, some of whom haven't seen each other for years, continue their visit around the tables.

Those who seek sophistication can hie away to population centers, where artificial barriers are built up against friendliness, where old-fashioned visiting has little place in the clutter and bustle of modern living. For our part we'll stick around in Central Illinois, watching the corn grow and waiting for the next reunion.

His Secret Is A Cymbal

By HAL BOYLE

New York.—(P)—The Avedis Zildjian family has held a secret for 326 years.

"We don't tell it to the women," said Zildjian. "The father tells it only to his eldest son, and in time he tells it to his eldest son. In this way we keep the secret."

The secret is how to make cymbals. That doesn't sound like much of a secret—but the cymbal isn't as simple as it sounds. You don't have to age a saxophone. You do a cymbal—it has to be mellowed like good wine.

These musical noise-makers are as old as the Bible, but the Zildjian family has been manufacturing them only since 1623. It was in that year that the first Avedis Zildjian, a Constantinople alchemist, discovered a secret process for making an ideal cymbal metal from an alloy of tin, copper and silver.

Easy to Analyze Alloy

Through the centuries the family developed almost a world monopoly in the manufacture of cymbals. They still dominate it.

"It is easy to analyze the alloy we use," said the current Avedis Zildjian. "But no one can put it together—and some of the biggest metal companies in the country have tried."

Zildjian, a 59-year-old Armenian who came to this country in 1909, has done more than any other single man to make the musical world cymbal-minded.

"When I started, the bands only used one kind of cymbal—a heavy one," he said. "Now we have 171 models in different weights and sizes."

His 12-man factory at Quincy, Mass., now turns out thousands of cymbals yearly. The work is all done by hand, and it takes 45 days to turn the rude metal ingots into speak not or you die."

OPPORTUNITY ARRIVES—When a nine-inch cloudburst swelled streams around Pleasanton, Tex., water rose to 18 inches in some stores. Water in this western auto store gave the manager, R. A. Royal, a long-awaited chance to go fishing. Damage by the flood was slight.

Morgan Achievement Day Set For Saturday

Centenary Methodist church will be the scene of much activity on Saturday, July 30, when 4-H girls of Morgan county hold their annual achievement day.

As is the custom, there will be exhibits of clothing, foods and special projects. Those adjudged the best will be displayed at the State Fair in August.

During the afternoon, a special program will be presented, highlighted by a dress revue, with girls in the advanced clothing projects modeling garments they have made.

Will Not Judge Clothing

The clothing projects will not be judged this year. Instead, clothing classes will be conducted for the girls enrolled in these projects by Mrs. Edith Huffman, Fulton county home advisor, who will consult the girls on the looks, color, construction and other points of their garments.

Mrs. Mildred Seeman, home advisor for Morgan and Scott counties, stated that this method should be more beneficial to the girls than the regular judging. They will be told what is wrong with their garments and how to correct their sewing mistakes.

Classes will be held in the following divisions: skirts and scarfs; housecoats, pajamas and sports clothes; blouses, formals and informal party dresses; school dresses, church and street dresses; and wool garments.

The selection of garments to be entered in State Fair competition will depend upon the recommendation of local leaders.

Food, Special Projects

The sewing classes will be held during the morning, at which time the foods and special projects will be judged.

The local leaders who are assisting with the exhibits and judging them are Mrs. Calvin Allee, Mrs. James A. Dunlap, Mrs. William R. Clayton, Mrs. Louis Werries, Mrs. Charles Brainer, Mrs. B. A. Bollman, Mrs. James B. Swain, Mrs. R. B. Trotter, Mrs. Frank Lambert, Mrs. Herbert Clayton, Mrs. Harry Whitlock, Mrs. Fred Pahlmann, Mrs. W. C. Carter, Mrs. L. T. Smith, Mrs. Lester Seales, Mrs. Harold Stewart, Mrs. C. W. Mason, Mrs. Orris Lind-say, Mrs. Roy Nickel, Mrs. R. R. Long, Mrs. Lucille Jeffery, Shirley Ann Beavers, Mrs. Donald McNealy and Mrs. Roy Newberry.

To Announce Winners

The names of the winners and alternates who will represent Morgan county 4-H clubs at the State Fair will be made at the conclusion of the afternoon's program by Mrs. Seeman.

Acting as ushers for the program will be Judy Shewe and Rita Jean Nall of the Berea Girls. Kay Ford and Margaret Peters of the Waverly Girls will have charge of the programs. Guests will be Janet Dunlap of the City Six and Connie Lou Stillwell and Betty Lee Seymour of the Jolly Mixers.

Varied Program Planned

The program will be as follows: 4-H pledge, Elynor McFadden, Ebenezer club; group singing, Alexander Sunny Sun; recognition of leaders; response by a 4-H leader, Mrs. James Swain, Sinclair Snaps; demonstration, "Flower Arrangement," Nellie Dosssett, Waverly Girls; Duet, "Now Is The Hour," Elizabeth Newberry.

Ways to Save

If you were a Tahitian native you would "save for a rainy day" by sun drying sea cucumbers, or rori, which have a ready market in China for use in making soup. Rori are thumb sized and shaped like jelly fish that have such a powerful smell when being dried that they must be kept "down wind" from the village. They are very tough when dried and require hours of cooking, but are said to have a marvelous flavor.

Austin, Tex.—(AP)—In his last six years as head football coach of the University of Texas, Dana X. Bible lost only seven Southwest Conference games, but four of them were to Texas Christian University.

THE ICEMAN COMETH TO THE RESCUE—Ralph Bailey of a Ludlow, Mass., ice company makes a stop at an artificial pond each day and delivers a half ton of ice to the fish. So far, according to Al Fuller, who built the pond, the stunt has saved many fish from death in the tepid water. Young bathers on hand don't seem to object to lowering the temperature of the water either.

Amvets Invited To Make Bid For State Convention

At a regular meeting of Jacksonville Amvet Post held Tuesday night, with Vice Commander John P. Beadles presiding, three new members, Robert E. Spink, Genevieve Spire and Orrin B. Dole were accepted into the Post.

Reading of communications consisted of a letter from the State Department of Amvets, inviting the Post to make a bid for the 1950 state convention. A letter of appreciation together with donation of $25 from the Jacksonville Detachment Marine Corps League for permitting them to meet in the Amvet club rooms free of charge, was also read.

Standing committee reports were made by C. P. Siegfried, of the Sick Committee and by Harold Myers of the Junior Softball Committee, who announced that the Junior Vets had now been issued their softball uniforms. The Recreation Committee announced that the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers three game series this coming Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon would all be televised and all members were invited to watch the series via television.

The Post voted to issue a publication each month, to be known as "Post 100 Jacksonville Amvet News," which will be sent to paid up members several days prior to the first meeting each month. Committee

STRETCHING THINGS A LITTLE TOO FAR—This young lady appears to have lost her head over getting that good even tan at Daytona Beach, Fla. Actually, the body belongs to Joan Hull, the head to her twin sister Mary.

Former Local Woman Featured In Magazine

The "How America Lives" feature in the August issue of the Ladies Home Journal centers around a former Jacksonville resident, Ruth Underwood DeNeal, and her young husband, Todd DeNeal.

The 16-page picture spread, captioned "Young Pioneers on a New Frontier," shows the DeNeals at home, at work and at play. There are scenes of their home, their working conditions and the many social and recreational activities they enjoy.

There is also a section devoted to Mrs. DeNeal's favorite recipes and her grooming habits. A tall, good looking blond, Mrs. DeNeal is shown modeling a number of smart fall fashions.

Live In "New" City
The "new frontier" theme rings true, too, for the DeNeals live in Richland, Wash., a city for which "new" is the only proper adjective. All the homes, hotels, stores and business establishments there have been built only recently.

Formerly a village of 300 people, Richland has developed within a period of a few short years, into a modern city with a population of 23,000, the fourth largest in the state.

The primary factor in the rapid growth of this city has been the construction of the Hanford Engineering plant, which manufactures plutonium, used in the making of atomic bombs.

Both Work At Plant
Both Mrs. DeNeal and her husband are employed at the plant. Mrs. DeNeal holds the top position for women, that of executive secretary to the general manager. Her husband is a chemist.

They have been associated with the plant, since it was organized in the early years of World War II. The village of Richland was chosen as a site for the plant because it is in desert country, only a few miles from the Columbia River.

Mrs. DeNeal was graduated from MacMurray college in 1938 with a bachelor of arts degree. Her major was in business administration. Following graduation, she worked in the admissions office of the college for about two years.

Was Concert Pianist
An accomplished musician, Mrs. DeNeal later did concert work as a pianist. She is now accompanist for the Meistersingers, a 70-voice male chorus, well-known throughout the state of Washington.

Her parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Underwood, now reside in Green Valley, Ill., where Rev. Underwood is pastor of the Methodist church. Rev. Underwood formerly served the Methodist West Circuit. While living here, their home was on North Webster avenue.

He and his wife returned here this summer to attend the Methodist conference.

SCHOLFIELD'S RETURN FROM 3,700 MI. TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Scholfield, 900 South Clay, returned recently from a 3,700 mile tour of the New England states and Canada.

Places of special interest on their trip were Hyde Park, the Green and White Mountain ranges, the Maine coast, the Canadian cities of Quebec and Ottawa, and the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre. They returned along the Canadian side of the Great Lakes, re-entering the United States at Detroit.

LEAVES HOSPITAL

Mrs. Jessie Morrison has returned to her home at Chapin after undergoing the removal of a carbuncle at a hospital in this city. Her condition is reported as improving. Mrs. Morrison was accompanied to her home by her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Seal of Murrayville, and Mrs. Raymond Evans of Jacksonville.

Opinion Upholds Constable's Right To Serve Warrant

Jerseyville—Attorney General Ivan A. Elliott has given an opinion to State's Attorney Alvin H. Pettit of Jersey county regarding jurisdiction of constables in the county where they are elected and qualified, regarding their right to serve warrants.

The opinion is to the effect that a constable who has been fully qualified can properly serve a search warrant directed to him, not only in the township for which he was elected, but also any place within the county in which he is located.

Inquiry was made by Pettit of the attorney general's office relative to the authority of a constable elected in one township of a county to serve warrants in other townships of the same county.

The opinion of the attorney general was sought when the question of a constable's jurisdiction was raised in Jersey county following the seizure of slot machines in a rural tavern of the locality.

Jerseyville Girl Weds Hardin Man

Jerseyville—Miss Jane Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Davenport of Jerseyville, became the bride of Leland Ufer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ufer of the Hardin vicinity, in a ceremony which took place July 19 at the First Christian church of Sturgis, Ky. Lester Pifer, pastor, officiated at the single ring rites.

Mr. and Mrs. John Presley of Hardin, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, were attendants for the couple.

Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Ufer returned to Hardin where they have established their home on a farm in that vicinity.

The bride is a graduate of the Jersey Township High school, finishing with the class of 1948, and for the past year has been a student in the school of nursing of the Memorial hospital in Alton.

Joint Picnic Held By Church Groups At White Hall

White Hall—The Men's club and with the members of the Sunday school of the local Methodist church held their annual picnic with approximately 150 persons in attendance. A basket supper was enjoyed in the grove of the Ennis Tunnison farm. Mr. Tunnison and R. L. Davis were in charge of arrangements for the picnic. Games were enjoyed after the supper.

The C & W class of the local Presbyterian church met at the church with Mesdames Russell Roodhouse, Carroll Fanning and A. Worcester as hostesses. Mrs. Fanning led the devotions. Twenty persons were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gill entertained the following guests at a basket dinner at their home here: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sharkeart and son, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Garrison and Mrs. Gene Shaw, all of Nebo; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jacob and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of Pleasant Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Evans and family and Mr. and Mrs. Don Evans of Carrollton; Mr. and Mrs. J. For The Ladies: A Diet That Really Works

We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk!

I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?"

"Mother," I says, "the only diet I would ever recommend to anyone is simply moderation. I wouldn't

Jersey Policeman Gets Award For Efficient Work

Jerseyville—Night officer H. H. Blackorby, Jr. of the Jerseyville police force, was awarded a citation and prize at French Village Monday afternoon for meritorious police services during April of this year.

Each month a state police publication awards three prizes and citations for officers performing the most valuable work during that period. Blackorby was awarded third place in the State of Illinois for his work in arresting a suspect who had robbed the C & A Grocery in Jerseyville the evening of April 13.

Captain Winder of the Illinois Highway Police made the presentation of the award to Blackorby in the presence of a number of officers.

Amend Sections Of Real Estate Brokers' Law

As a protection to the public, six amendments were made to the Real Estate Brokers and Salesmen License Law by the 66th session of the Illinois general assembly.

One of the most important amendments which deserves special consideration, C. L. Rice, president of the Jacksonville Real Estate Board, explained, is that every real estate broker must secure written consent from the owner before placing the "For Rent" or "For Sale" sign on the property, or advertising the property in any way whatsoever.

This means that sellers of real estate who engage the services of a real estate broker must enter into a listing authorization before the broker can act. On the other hand, buyers or renters of property will know that the property offered is actually on the market.

Cluttered, Cramped Bedroom Redecorated Gives Illusion of Size, Triples Storage

By Hugh Evans
 Written for NEA Service

New York—(NEA)—The overflow that lurks under beds, hides in fireplaces, and climbs to the ceiling in bedroom corners is an all-too-familiar problem for today's householders in cramped homes or apartments.

As an interior designer specializing in budget decorating, the plea I hear most frequently is "How can we possibly increase our storage facilities, get rid of this clutter, make the bedroom more livable and do it all on a budget."

The problem isn't as hopeless as it sounds. Case in point is the redecorated bedroom of a young client, whom we shall call Mrs. X. The "before" picture of her bedroom is eloquent proof of her closet overflow: luggage boxes and hampers, bundles of hats, shoes, clothes, and blankets. These were crammed everywhere, including the fireplace opening over which Mrs. X hung a pathetic-looking little black curtain.

Contributing to the clutter and near-stifling aspect of the bedroom were badly draped windows and doors leading to the terrace which added to the "chopped up" look: two dressers, two built-in chests and a too-slimy rug. The limited color line of the rug "broke up" the floor space and did its noble best to make the room look smaller and crowded. In re-designing the room we tripled the existing storage space provided by one small closet and increased the apparent room size by simple decorating devices which anyone faced with the same problem can use.

What was done to increase storage space and to give the illusion of more bedroom was to put in a wall-to-wall storage unit across one wall, tailor-fitted to Mr. and Mrs. X's needs. Factory-made units doubling as cabinets, chests, wardrobes and cupboards were assembled, painted to match the other walls of the room and framed by panels. One sectioned storage unit was fitted over the doorway.

The over-all effect was one of expensive custom-made cabinetry, although these units are standard. Sections are pre-sized in a wide range of widths and heights, easily assembled, secured by screws and made to fit practically any wall space. Come moving day, storage wall units can be unscrewed and carted away like any other furniture.

To aid the new illusion of unbroken space, we treated the windows and doors as one unit and

Ceremony Unites Bonna M. Kessie And Donald Moss

Carrollton—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kessie have announced the marriage of their daughter, Bonna Mae, to Donald Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moss of this city. The couple were married Saturday evening, July 23, in Jerseyville by Justice W. Hanley.

Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Gayland McCaherty of Eldred. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Moss left on a wedding trip into the Ozarks for the week end. They are making their home for the present with the bride's parents.

This is another big reason why we're sure LUCKY STRIKE MEANS FINE TOBACCO!

Tests made by America's largest cigarette research laboratory scientifically help
Lucky Strike buyers select the fine tobacco that goes into Luckies!

YOU SEE HERE the largest and most complete laboratory of its kind operated by any cigarette manufacturer in America.

For many years Lucky Strike scientists have delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale. Out of this has grown an elaborate system of quality control. Every step in the making of Luckies—from before the tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the laboratory's watchful eye.

As you read this, a constant stream of tobacco... samples from every tobacco-growing area... is flowing into the laboratory in Richmond, Virginia. These samples are scientifically analyzed, and reports of their quality go to the men who buy at auction for the makers of Lucky Strike.

Armed with this confidential, scientific information—and their own sound judgment—these men go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco. This fine tobacco—together with scientifically controlled manufacturing methods—is your assurance that there is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike!

This man knows where fine tobacco grows. Here is one of Lucky Strike's tobacco-buying supervisors gathering sample leaves from a curing barn. Such samples are obtained from every tobacco-growing area and sent to the laboratory for pre-market analysis. No wonder—L. S./M. F. T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco!

This scientist knows how to test tobacco. In our Tobacco Control Division, samples sent to the laboratory are subjected to scores of analyses to determine smoking quality. This vital testing, both before and after tobacco is purchased, has been conducted for years... still another guarantee that Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

Reports received. The laboratory sends results of the analyses to the buying supervisors. This information helps the buyer go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco for Lucky Strike. Thus the judgment of the buyer at tobacco auctions is combined with modern science at the laboratory to assure you that Luckies are a finer, milder cigarette.

Wally Moses Gets 2,000th Hit, Joins Exclusive Group

Philadelphia, July 27.—(AP)—"Old man" Wally Moses holds a membership today in that exclusive fraternity of major league baseball players who have collected 2,000 or more hits.

The 38-year-old veteran of 14 seasons in the big time achieved that mark last night when he clouted a single to right field in the fifth inning of the Philadelphia Athletics-St. Louis Browns game.

Moses became the 86th major leaguer to win a membership card in the "2000 club" and only the third active player to boast such a record.

The Chicago White Sox' Luke Appling has 2,658 hits to his credit, and Pittsburgh's Dixie Walker 2,446 including yesterday's games. The all-time mark of 4,191 was set by Ty Cobb.

Moses, reacquired by the A's this year to bolster an injury-ridden outfield, went into last night's game one hit short of his mark.

The other members of the A's team and most of the fans at Shibe Park were aware of the situation and when Moses latched onto an offering by pitcher Joe Ostrowski, they

"old man" received a well-deserved ovation.

He's A Nice Guy, Too
For Moses, in addition to being one of the major leagues' best left-handed swingers, is a "nice guy." Everybody from manager Connie Mack to the guy in row 20 of the leftfield bleachers was pulling for him to come through.

The A's won the game 5-4 in 10 innings.

A native of Uvalde, Ga., Moses broke into the majors with the A's in 1935. That first year he batted .325 and the following year zoomed to .345. In seven seasons with the Athletics he never dropped below .300.

In 1942, he was traded to the Chicago White Sox, then managed by Jimmie Dykes, himself a former member of the A's in the world series.

His league mark included a tie for the most triples in 1943 and the top double clout in 1945.

Now nearing the end of the playing trail, Moses was not completely welcomed by the Philadelphia fans when he was purchased from Boston this year. Many thought Connie Mack was making a mistake to add the veteran outfielder to his roster.

Changed Fans Attitude
Moses quickly changed the fans' attitude. Replacing Barney McCosky, out with a sore leg even before the start of the season—Moses repeated came through with hits when they were most needed. Of all his 2,000 base blows, none stands out particularly in Moses' mind. But Jimmy Dykes—now back with the A's as a coach—recalls one vividly.

In a game between the White Sox and the Boston Red Sox, as Moses, then with Boston, came to the plate, Dykes warned the Chicago pitcher not to throw anything high and inside.

"The first pitch was high and inside," says Dykes. "and Moses teed off. I turned around and picked up a radio someone had in the dugout and smashed it against the wall."

"Sure it was a homer and we lost the game. That was bad enough but I had to fork over $95 to pay for the radio."

FISHING AND HUNTING NEWS

By the Associated Press
Illinois' more than 500 square miles of fertile water produces some good fishing—and even better fish stories. This week the Associated Press begins an Illinois outdoor column that will be devoted to fishing, hunting and other seasonal sports.

We plan to report on catches and fishing conditions, come fall and winter, the emphasis will be on hunting.

Recent heavy rains have muddied a lot of Illinois streams and sharply reduced the take of game fish.

If you must wet a hook right now, it's best to go after carp and catfish. Catfish are on the prowl, but not biting so well in the smaller streams, especially where the water is receding. The spawning season is over and most of them will be doing a fast shuffle for lake water.

Best spots for catfish right now is at the mouth of a stream or branch or in the eddies where food is being swirled from the main current. Worms are plenty good for the bait since most water is pretty muddy.

Game wardens report that only a few anglers are having any luck in the Chicago area. They're the ones willing to work hard for a few fish.

Blue gills are biting on worms in the Chain O' Lakes area. The best strings are being taken from the edges of the lily beds. Some of the better spots are the channel between Grass Lake and Lake Marie, the north side of Nippersink Lake and the west side of Petite Lake.

Bass fishing, too, is suffering from the dog day heat. Early morning and late evening are producing the best catches.

"It takes a thief to catch a thief."

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service is taking this tip in the fight against the sea lamprey.

The blood sucking eels are playing hob with the trout in the Great Lakes. Commercial fishermen reported catches have dwindled to almost nothing in the past three or four years.

And now there's evidence the lampreys have invaded Illinois streams.

To fight back the invasion of these fish killers, the service, co-operating with the main department of sea and shore fisheries, has shipped in a million Maine eels. They're being liberated in the infested waters. These Maine eels feed heavily on lamprey spawn.

The sea lamprey, a slimy native of salt water, feeds by clinging to the body of a fish with its vacuum-cup mouth and sucking out blood and body fluids.

Four newspapermen from the East St. Louis Journal are back from Ely, Minn., with proof that you can enjoy a trip from southern Illinois to the Lake country for $10 a day.

The ten bucks include all transportation, home and back, with canoe portages and airplane trips thrown in. But you must be prepared to drive all the way with no hotel or tourist court stops.

Managing Editor Robert A. Bar-

tracks. Business Manager: E. Kenneth Woods. City Editor: R. W. Giesinger and Reporter Charles O. Stewart have just returned from such a trip to the Canadian borderland.

They left home on a Monday afternoon, drove to Duluth, along the north shore of Lake Superior and arrived at an outfitter's store at Ely before noon Tuesday.

A couple of hours later they were at remote Knife Lake, having flown in by seaplane. Another plane brought in their two aluminum canoes and all their camping equipment. Camp was set up and they were fishing by 4 p. m.

After six days of taking lakers, wall eyes, northern and small mouth they flew back to Ely. Returning home Monday afternoon, they figured all their costs at $70 each.

Fishermen who use the Hennepin Canal crave a renewal of commercial traffic on the old waterway. They believe more barges, requiring more frequent use of the locks, would clear out a lot of the moss that has lined the banks and overgrown some of the best bass feeding grounds.

A reminder to squirrel hunters: The seasons in Illinois are—south zone, Aug. 1 to Oct. 15; central zone, Sept. 1 to Oct. 31; northern zone, Sept. 15 to Nov. 15.

The daily limit is five, the possession limit 10.

East St. Louis Livestock
National Stockyards, Ill., July 27.—(AP)—USDA—Hogs 7500; fairly active; weights 250 lbs down steady to 25 higher than Tuesday's average; heavier weights 25 to 50 higher and uneven; bulk good and choice.

New York Stock Market

New York, July 27.—(AP)—The stock market barely maintained headway today.

Fairly active trading developed off and on, helped along by a couple of large deals in Commonwealth & Southern. Turnover was at a rate of about 1,000,000 shares for the full day.

Selective demands appeared for railway bonds.

WHEAT MOVES AHEAD; OTHER GRAINS, LARD, SOYBEANS ADVANCE

Chicago, July 27.—(AP)—Wheat came to the front of an advancing grain market toward the close today, running up more than a cent on general commission house and local buying. The gains here followed an upturn at national markets, particularly Minneapolis.

Corn showed some strength from the start, largely because of heavy impoundings of cash corn under the government loan.

Soybean and lard joined grains in the upward rush. They were aided by a good advance in cottonseed oil at New York.

Receipts were: wheat 128 cars, corn 142, oats 168, rye 15, barley 6, soybeans 31.

Wheat closed 1 to 1 1/2 higher. September $2.05 1/2, corn was 11-11 1/2 higher. September $1.26 1/2, oats were 1-1 1/2 higher. September 65 1/2, rye was 21-24 higher. September $1.54 1/2, soybeans were 4 to 5 cents higher. November $2.31-2.30 1/2, and lard was 12 to 15 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $11.60.

Philadelphia, July 27.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics spotted the St. Louis Browns five runs in the first inning and then came from behind twice to win the second game of the two-night doubleheader 8-6 after taking the opener 7-3. The twin victory ran the A's winning streak to five straight.

Putter To Be Most Important Club In Western Open

St. Paul, Minn., July 27.—(AP)—The putter, always an important club to any golfer, took on new importance today on the eve of the 46th Western open tournament.

The reason? Keller course, a par 72, 6,557-yard layout, is a victim of the weather. Hot, dry weather of the past few weeks has eliminated the rough and dried up the fairways to produce a long roll.

Because of this, most of the 123 players likely will get on the greens in two or three putters. The man with magic in his putter thus will be most likely to succeed even more than usual.

Because of this, it appeared that a couple of records may be bettered. One of them is Johnny Palmer's Western open record of 270, set in 1947 at Salt Lake City. The other is Henry Ransom's 268 in 1946 with which he won the St. Paul open, supplanted by the western classic this year.

Dodgers Defeat Chicago Cubs 7-3

Chicago, July 27.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers' longest losing streak of the season ended at four games today as the Brooks routed the Chicago Cubs, 7-3.

Home runs by Gil Hodges and Bruce Edwards featured the Dodgers' 11-hit assault against Dutch Leonard, Warren Hacker and Emil Kosh.

Hodges broke a 1-1 tie with his 14th homer in the fourth inning with Jackie Robinson on base. The Dodgers sewed up the game in seventh with a three run drive on a walk, Gene Hermanski's triple, Duke Snider's double and another two-bagger by Hodges. Edwards connected for the circuit in the eighth.

Don Newcombe started for the Dodgers and although he pitched a good game, he became the ninth straight Dodger pitcher to fail to go the distance. Newcombe fanned then and walked only two.

The big Negro righthander was fitted in favor of Workhorse Erv Palica in the ninth after yielding a homer to Hermanski, hitting a batter and granting a single to Hal Jeffcoat.

Jeffcoat had a hand in the manufacturing of the Cubs' first two runs. He tripled and scored Frankie Baumholtz' single in the first and ripped Mickey Owen home in the fifth.

The triumph was Newcombe's eighth of the season against three losses and the defeat was Leonard's 12th against four victories.

N. Y. Giants Whip Pittsburgh 8 To 3

Pittsburgh, July 27.—(AP)—New York's Giants evaded sixth place in the National League standings today by defeating Pittsburgh, 8 to 3, on the fine relief pitching of Kirby Higbe, recently acquired from the Pirates.

Higbe took over the hurling from starter Clint Hartung in the fifth inning and gave up only four hits the remainder of the way.

The Giants moved out in front in the seventh when four singles, Sid Gordon's double and Wes Westrum's home run with two mates on base meant five runs.

During the ebbage Monto Basgall, Pirate second baseman, was hit in the face when a batted ball took a bad hop and was forced to retire Willard Marshall. Giant outfielder, also had to leave the game during the inning when a foul off his own bat hit him on the right foot.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, July 27.—(AP)—Hog prices were steady to 25 cents lower today, but cattle trends spread in all directions. Sheep were steady except ewes which were steady to 50 cents higher.

Barrows and gilts maintained their same $22.60 lot of Tuesday, with most good and choice kinds looking around $21.25 to $22.50. Heavier weights were scarce.

Upper grades of steers were mostly steady but lesser grades ruled steady to weak. Heifers were steady, sows steady to weak. Bulls were weak to around $10.00 lower while vealers were steady to 50 cents higher. Choice to prime steers topped at $28.75, highest value here in more than two weeks. Most good and choice kinds netted $25.50 to $27.50. Heifers topped at $27.00, medium to low-choice ranging from $22.00 to $26.75. Good cows topped at $19.00, bulls at $20.75, and vealers at $16.50. Native spring lambs sold downward from $24.50 and good and choice Idaho deliveries took $24.00. Most ewes ranged from $9.50 to $6.50 but a batch of Illinois-fed, western bred ewes merited $10.50.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF JEWELRY

The undersigned administrator of the estate of Amanda Aruckle, deceased, will sell at 315 Anna street, Jacksonville, Illinois, at 10 o'clock a.m., Saturday, July 30, 1949, certain items of jewelry belonging to said estate, including one diamond ring, approximately 50 point, center stone and six side stones of about 2 points each, clear, brilliant, of good color; also two watches and other rings.

Hot Ten Tots Feature Art Wilson In Lineup; Play Here On Weekend

Art Wilson, Illinois College senior and gridiron star for the past three years, will be featured in the Hot Ten Tot lineup at third base when the World's Champion colored softball team invades Jacksonville's Southside park for two games Saturday and Sunday nights.

Wilson is competing with the Tots for the second straight year. Prior to hooking up with the fast show softball team from Chicago, he starred on the football and basketball squads at Quincy high school. A jackrabbit halfback, he was a welcome addition to coach Al Miller's football team in 1946.

The Hot Ten Tots will bring basically the same team into Jacksonville this year that they have used to delight softball enthusiasts in this vicinity in several previous seasons. They perform many pre-game antics for the amusement of softball addicts, the outstanding of which is the Hot Pepper game. Free-wheeling Freeman, a sensational pitcher who won 57 games and lost only 3 last season, is returning to the Southside park for the second time. He helped whip a local All-Star aggregation last year.

For the Tots appearance this year, the All-Star idea has been banned. Instead, the Jacksonville House of Clay outfit will tangle with them in their first performance at 9 p. m. Saturday. A preliminary contest between the local Moose and Manchester softballers has also been arranged. The curtain-raiser will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Fans who will be unable to see the champs in action Saturday night, will have a chance to view some great softball Sunday evening when Myers Bros. meet the Tots at 8 o'clock. The 7:30 prelim will see the Jacksonville Pepsi Cola bump into Ruhl & Durocher's strengthened club in a "B" league tussle.

Traveling show teams have fanned a new-found respect for Jacksonville softball clubs. The Implement Dealers are largely responsible for this change of attitude. The Dealers, managed by Clint Arenz, downed the Oklahoma Cowboys handily last weekend by a 7-4 count. The Okies came into Jacksonville via Danville and Decatur where they had whipped the Decatur aggregation 1-0 and lost to Danville, always a 1-0 defeat, only 4-3. By comparative scores, this places Jacksonville softball where it belongs, right up on top.

House of Clay Has New Pitcher

The local House of Clay nine has received added prestige with several nifty wins of late. They started their rise in public acclaim two weeks ago when they downed Myers Bros., a league-leader, 4-3 at the Southside park. Their latest achievement was a 6-0 victory over the Beardstown Sinclears in the Riverside tournament which is currently underway.

They have been further strengthened by the addition of Tom Nesbitt, a mystery man, to their slab staff. Nesbitt twirled no-hit ball against the Beardstown club for 6 1/2 innings Tuesday night, before a Sinclear batsman dumped a Texas leaguer over shortstop for their only safety.

Myers has been the ultimate in local softball for a number of years. Managed by Bill Deutsch, the clothiers entered softball on even a bigger scale this season when they cracked into the Central Illinois industrial league which boasts such outfits as Springfield Fitzpatrick, Peoria Rozells, and Mike's Tavern of Gillespie. Up to last night, the Bros. had a 500 percent record in CIIS league standings.

Myers Have Blakeman

Paul Blakeman, described as one of the best pitchers in this area, has been added to the Myers roster. Although he attends the U. of I. summers sessions, he returns to Jacksonville over the weekends and will undoubtedly see action against the Hot Ten Tots.

The Hot Ten Tots attribute their claims to World Championship fame to the fact they have defeated every great colored team in softball, including Flint, Michigan, Topeka, Kas., Huxman Hawks (state champs), Tulsa Colored League, All Stars, Morgan Park Comets, Cleveland Majestics, Cincinnati Reds, Omaha Packers, etc. In colored circles the Tots have lost only two games in the history of the club. Their record stands unrivaled since 1923. They have won 500 games and lost 2 in colored competition. In open competition, the Hot Ten Tots have won 624 and lost 300.

The Tots are charter members of the American Softball Association.

From the deep South (Orlando, Fla.) comes word that Stan Spotts has made the grade as a shortstop for the Orlando Senators in the Florida State (class D) league. Stan, a product of Jacksonville high school, was everything that we predicted he would be in his professional debut. The chunky infielder collected three hits in five times at bat, one of these being a double, and drove two runs across the plate. He participated in one twin-killing, made a single putout and contributed three assists as his Orlando club tamped Daytona Beach 10-3.

Jack Roessier, Washington scout in Springfield, relayed the glad news to this corner. Jack further informed us that Stan has plenty of Illinois company on the Orlando roster. The portly Springfield talent, a winter personality, signed five Illinois youths to Seneca contracts and assigned them to Orlando. Mel Kerestes, a second-baseman from Streator, is the other half of the all-Illinois key-stone combo. Hank Bruder, a big righthanded pitcher from LaSalle, did the twirling when Stan made his Orlando debut. Don Taylor, an outfielder, was signed off the Kankakee high school baseball team and Dean Stone is a portside slinger from Port Byron, Illinois.

Spotts was probably a most welcome addition to the Orlando lineup in more ways than one. Besides serving as a valuable replacement to manager Charley Myatt, a former Washington big league infielder who has decided that he's too aged to actively participate in the diamond sport, he'll be able to bolster the Illinois forces when the Civil War is re-fought back at the hotel after the games.

Two outfielders were dropped from the Orlando roster to make room for Stan and Ed Brooklyn, a highly publicized left handed pitcher from Sanford, Florida.

Jim Kelly, sportswriter on the Police Gazette, has carried his portable mill way out on ye ole limbe. In a Gazette article titled "Who Is Baseball's Greatest," Kelly lists outfielders Joe DiMaggio, Stan Musial and Ted Williams in that order. We have a premonition that friend Kelly will like "The Outlaw," be banned in Boston.

The Gazette sports ace, and we agree, attributes his choice to the fact that DiMaggio and Musial are more of the "team player" variety than is the Cardinal and Yankee stars are more polished outfielders. Imagine a St. Louis and New York ruffian being more

Tigers Lose 7-6 Then Blast Nats In 11-0 Contest

Washington, July 27.—(AP)—Detroit battered Washington pitching for 32 hits tonight in a twilight-night double-header but got only a split game 7-6, to snap an 11-game losing streak. The Tigers compiled 17 hits behind Freddie Hutchinson's 4-hit pitching to take the second game, 11-0.

Rookie Johnny Groth led the Tigers' assault on Joe Haynes, Lloyd Hittle and Al Gettel in the second game. He contributed a double and three singles, while Connie Berry and Don Kolloway each got three hits.

Washington's Ray Scarborough was forced to save off a ninth inning rally to stave off the first game for the Senators. Scarborough, who won his eighth game after replacing Sid Hudson, carried a 7-5 lead into the ninth, but the Tigers scored with two cut on singles by Groth, Johnny Lipon and pinch-hitter Hutchinson before Kolloway popped out.

Yanks, Indians Rained Out At 4-4 Tie In 4th Inning

New York, July 27.—(AP)—A heavy downpour washed out the second of an important three game series between the league leading New York Yankees and runner-up Cleveland Indians today.

The teams were in a 4-4 deadlock when the downpour halted hostilities after four innings of play.

A disappointed crowd of 47,596 paying customers waited hopefully in the shelter of the Mammoth Stadium for the skies to clear. But after one hour and 57 minutes, when the downpour showed no signs of slackening, Chief Umpire Bill McGowan officially called the game.

The washout left the Yankees tied three games in front of Cleveland. No announcement was made when the game would be replayed.

The Yankees got off to a 4-0 lead in the first inning, blasting Bob Feller off the mound before he could retire a batter. Tommy Henrich, playing despite a broken toe on his right foot, produced the big wallop, a towering home run with two teammates aboard.

The tribe got half of the runs back in the second and third innings on homers by Joe Gordon and relief pitcher Sam Zolask.

The Indians evened up matters in the fourth, routing Ed Lopat and filling the bases on relievers Clarence Marshall and Joe Page, before they were retired.

A double by Mickey Vernon and Larry Doby's single to right accounted for one run. Doby's steal of second, a sacrifice and Manager Lou Boudreau's long fly brought in the Cleveland center fielder.

Braves Beat Reds 9-7 In 13 Innings

Cincinnati, July 27.—(AP)—The Boston Braves had to travel 13 innings today to subdue the seventh-place Cincinnati Reds, 9-7, and it was Marv Rickert's two-run homer in the fourth extra frame that won the game.

Bud Lively, the fourth Cincinnati pitcher and the loser, held the Braves to one hit from the ninth to the 13th frame. After two were out, he walked Eddie Stanky and Rickert promptly lined one into the right field stands.

Glen Elliott, who took over the Boston pitching in the ninth, was in trouble frequently but managed to squeeze through for his third victory against one defeat.

In the eighth, Bob Elliott homered for the Braves with two aboard. He had accounted for another Boston run with a circuit smash in the sixth. He was tossed from the game in the 11th inning by Umpire Frank Dascoli for repeated protests over the call of balls and strikes.

Boston 000 001 033 000—9 13 5
Cincinnati 002 010 040 000—7 12 0 (13 innings)

Bickford, Potter (8), G. Elliott (9) and Crandall, Salkeld (8); Vande Meer, Blackwell (9), Lively (9) and Cooper. HHR: Boston—R. Elliott 2, Rickert. Winning pitcher—G. Elliott. Losing pitcher—Lively.

Visiting Nines Whip V.F.W., Myers Bros.

Two Jacksonville softball teams were raked over the coals by visiting nines at the Southside park last night.

In the preliminary contest the local V.F.W. outfit was singled only slightly by an invading Winchester club when they dropped a hard-fought 6-5 tilt to the Scott county team.

A hard-hitting Gillespie aggregation figuratively burned up Myers Bros. player-riddled club in the nightcap when they piled on clothing-hurler Engebrecht for 12 scorching drives that netted them 11 runs while the local lambasters could collect but 3 hits and 2 runs.

Myers was seriously weakened by the loss of key players who traveled to Havana with the Moose baseball team where they competed in the state play-off series.

With players performing out of position, the Myers defense was infested with errors, something unusual for the strong local team. Bud Hall was picked up from the K. of C. club to strengthen the Myers outfield and played brilliantly to bolster defensive play. However, the infield was loosened by the loss of Paul Stroud at shortstop and Everett Allen at first base.

With these handicaps, Myers Bros. locked horns with the tough Gillespie bunch and kept pace for six innings, lagging only 5-2 going into the seventh chapter.

The Gillespie batsmen carried their big lumber up to the plate in the closing period and touched Engebrecht for 5 hits, while defensive play became snarled and clothier fielders committed 4 miscues and allowed the visitors to romp home with 6 additional runs.

TREE, WIRES FALL, BUT MAN ESCAPES

Sterling, Ill., July 27.—(AP)—W. P. Gantzer of Sterling counted himself a lucky man today.

While he was hooking a cable from a tow truck to the top of a tree which he was preparing to uproot yesterday, the tree toppled over and crashed through several nearby power lines.

Despite falling wires and the crashing tree, Gantzer escaped injury.

THREE OF A KIND

Kewanee, Ill., July 27.—(AP)—Henry Billel, a Kewanee store clerk, still says he isn't sure how he feels today. His wife gave birth to triplets—all boys—yesterday. Their condition is good.

THE STORY: A wealthy widow, Mrs. Everson, who believes that an atomic war is impending and with it the destruction of civilization, has determined to become one of the survivors. She is feeling in "a place of safety" in two gigantic trailers. In her party are the Marchese Delinca, an exiled nobleman, a companion Rudy, a disgraced movie star, her chauffeur, Victor, a well educated Filipino, her houseboy, and Mrs. Marguerite Malone, a widow, her cook. Mrs. Malone, in her thirties, has been tempted to run away, but she finds herself staying with the party. She learns Mrs. Everson is in love with Rudy, who wants only her money. Mrs. Malone, who plays the flute, is a strangely interesting man who also believes that catastrophe is near. And now the Marchese has just asked Mrs. Malone if her husband ever called her pretty. Mrs. Malone says that she never looks in a mirror any more. "You should," says the Marchese.

XV

THE Marchese began to play again, and Mrs. Malone, flushing, went into the kitchen. She trembled a little because no one called her pretty any more. Was it because she didn't want them to?

She leaned forward, now, and peered at her reflection in one of the polished aluminum pans that hung over the oven. She saw a woman in her late thirties, with a pert nose, a short upper lip, a pointed chin, hair dark brown and braided, gray eyes.

"Don't be a fool," she said aloud. She prepared lunch with an almost violent efficiency. When the mid-day halt came, Victor explained that Mrs. Everson was having a tray with Rudy. Twenty minutes out for lunch.

"We are behind schedule," the Filipino said. "We must push it to make up time."

Another stop was made at sundown and again Victor set a tray for two, carrying it forward to the cab.

"She likes being alone with him," Mrs. Malone said. "She hopes."

Victor shrugged.

"We drive all night tonight. So please make the coffee strong!"

They were in motion again when Mrs. Malone served the Marchese. He had dressed for dinner and was freshly brushed and shaved; she noticed a fragrance of eau de cologne. The candles were, the gardenias shivered, the robot record-changer substituted Bach for Prokofeff and Stravinsky for Elgar.

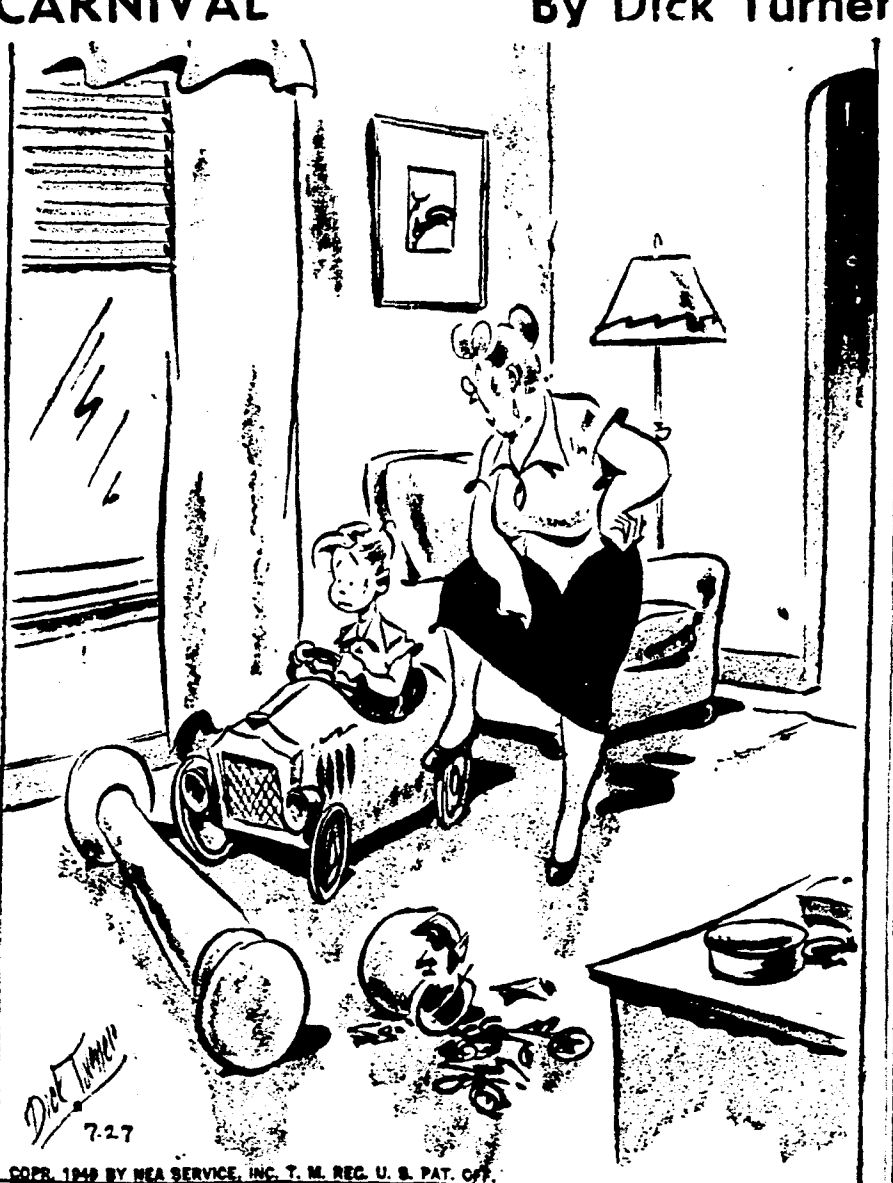

"You are an excellent cook, Malone."

"Thank you, sir."

With desert, a foaming prune whip, the Marchese drank a small glass of Benedictine and smoked a cigaret. Mrs. Malone noticed his hands; they were long-fingered, large, the wrists slender. Immaculate hands, strong and sensitive. He glanced up and caught her looking at him, and his heart jumped. He smiled but said nothing, and as she cleared the table, he seemed to have forgotten her. The comforting personal interest of the morning was lost. She felt alone again.

THE WABASH RAILROAD—YESTERDAY AND TODAY

Lewis Smith, 301 North Diamond, can recall the days when he used to stop cars for seven crack passenger trains which ran the Wabash route through Jacksonville. In today's Journal he tells about the time when hundreds of passengers used to flock to the depot to catch thru trains that ended up in Buffalo, New York. Today, but two passenger trains pass over the track, and a petition is pending before the ICC to remove those.

Recall Wabash Depot In Days When Crowds Flocked To Station

By Robert E. Bradney
"All aboard for Decatur, Detroit, and Buffalo, New York. Train leaves in two minutes, b-o-a-r-d!"
Hundreds of passengers are scurrying back and forth in the rush of holiday atmosphere. Well-heeled railroad men take out watches and inspect them solemnly. Porters walk knowingly through the confusion.

Where is this? Jacksonville, Illinois.
For once upon a time, in the memory of all middle-aged Jacksonville-ites, the Wabash depot which now stands in semi-decay on Lafayette avenue, was the show place of central Illinois. A three story hotel stood at the west end, and a bustling restaurant had its doors open 24 hours a day to serve hundreds of customers. Sleek horse drawn busses met the seven or so passenger trains, including a Buffalo special, which arrived daily and took tourists to hotels around town.

This wasn't very long ago. Much of it is remembered by Lewis Smith, 301 North Diamond who has been an employee of the Wabash railroad since 1922. He can remember when the large waiting room in the station was jammed packed, and ticket buyers crowded both windows to buy tickets either east or west out of Jacksonville. Now the Wabash has petitioned the I. C. C. to remove the last two passenger trains through Jacksonville.

Big Days Once
"The really big days here," Mr. Smith said, "was when there would be an excursion boat at Valley City. Our trains would take passengers to Valley City then bring them back when the boat docked. It was a pretty fine outing."

The hotel of which Mr. Smith spoke was opened about 50 years ago and was run by William Ellis and his wife. Not only did they run the hotel, but they had a first class dining room on the second floor. The west bound train, due at seven, and the east bound train, due at eight, stopped for a half hour to let passengers eat. All this was before the days of diners. Witnesses recall when a train would stop for lunch, a man would come out and beat upon a big brass cylinder which could be heard the length of the train. This was the dining room call.

Restaurant Installed
After the hotel was discontinued, a restaurant was installed in the station. This was the famed Ballard and Johnson station restaurant. At one time, this team also had restaurants at Decatur, Bluffs, and Springfield.

A never to be forgotten sight was the horse-drawn bus operated by J. W. Woods, and Packard and Spies. They used to back their sleek vehicle in the east end of the station and take passengers to hotels; the Old Dunlap, now the site of the A&P on West State, Pacific Park, (which stood where Montgomery Ward now stands), and the Illinois, now the Douglas.

In addition to the passenger buses, they used to run a baggage bus. This came in handy when salesmen would bring their wares to a local hotel sample room to sell local merchants.

Finally there were horse drawn carriages, the counterpart of the modern taxi. Probably at the height, there were fifteen of these and at first they would haul any place in the city for 25c. Later they jumped to a half a dollar.

Ford Wrote Death Warrant
Henry Ford wrote the death warrant of the horse drawn vehicle, as perhaps he did the station itself. Gradually these colorful carriages were replaced by the noisy "horseless carriage." One of the first Jacksonville men to see the significance of the technological change was Charles Dalrymple, who converted to motorized taxis.

On one of the main lines of the Wabash, a little surprising that more presidential candidates didn't visit Jacksonville. Teddy Roosevelt went through once but didn't stop. But even youngsters about the city remember the stops of the late Franklin Roosevelt and Wendell Wilkie.

Gained National Fame
Perhaps the whole story might be told in terms of railroad jobs which no longer exist. The people holding

Macomb Student Hurt In Collision Of Tractor, Truck

Rushville, Ill., July 27—(AP)—A farm tractor and a trailer truck collided and burst into flames today, sending their drivers to hospitals.

The heat from the flames was so intense it melted power lines at the crash scene, on U. S. Highway 67, six miles north of here.

Eugene Lambert, 18-year-old student at Western State College at Macomb, Ill., was driving the tractor. He was taken to Graham hospital in critical condition, suffering multiple fractures and internal injuries. Lambert lives near here.

The driver of the truck, Glen Miller of Oklahoma City, Okla., received minor injuries and was taken to Rushville hospital.

The truck was loaded with paraffin-coated paper drinking cups. Police said the tractor and truck were going in the same direction at the time of the collision.

Lambert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lambert, live in Littleton Township, Rushville is in Schuyler county.

Boy, 4, With Cancer Has Wish For Lots Of Mail Fulfilled

Phoenix, Ariz., July 27—(AP)—A hazel-eyed four-year-old boy who doctors say hasn't long to live was having his big wish fulfilled today. He was getting lots of mail, as a sympathetic nation responded to his plea.

Four months ago little Bobby Byers began to feel tired. More and more he would say, "Mommie, I hurt."

Later doctors found that Bobby had cancer. He lost his joy in toys and playthings. He found joy in opening those get-well-cards and having his mother read them to him.

At first mail came from friends and neighbors. Two days ago Bobby's story was told to the world. Yesterday he received 200 cards and letters. Today more than 3,000 pieces of mail were delivered to Bobby's home at 537 West Missouri avenue here.

More continues to pile up at the branch postoffice. Wayne Elliott, assistant superintendent, said a special truck probably will be needed.

Elect Ralph Hawk Commander V.F.W.

Winchester—The Winchester post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars met Tuesday evening, July 26, and elected officers for the following year. Ralph Hawk was re-elected Commander.

Other officers were elected as follows: senior vice-commander, Kenneth Daniels; junior vice-commander, Roy Kalschnee; quartermaster, Charles Shipley; adjutant, Richard Lashmet; sergeant-at-arms, Alvie Drake; service officer, Harold Switzer; and chaplain, Robert Lawrence.

Trustees are Carl Brown, Robert Lawrence, and James Cockerill.

Plans Completed For Cake Contest

Winchester—The arrangements for the annual cake contest in connection with the Winchester American Legion burgo picnic and homecoming have been completed. All cakes which are entered in the contest must be delivered to the cake stand at the picnic grounds by 10 a. m., Thursday, August 4, at which time judging will begin.

The merchants of Winchester have donated prizes for various kinds of cakes.

Hit And Run Driver Flees After Striking Man On Public Square

Clarence Spolum, an employee at the Salvation Army, was struck by a hit and run driver at the intersection of South Main and the square Wednesday night at 8:30 as he was walking from the south park entrance to the southeast corner of the square and South Main.

Taken to Our Saviour's hospital by Sergeant Spreen of the Jacksonville police, it was determined that his injuries were minor, and he was released. The only injury was a bruise in the left leg muscle.

Mr. Spolum stated that he did not see the car coming. After he had been hit, he said, the car drove 20 or 30 yards east on the square, stopped, then went on. Mr. Spolum is of the opinion the driver knew he had hit him.

Amos Vieira Witness
Another witness to the wreck, Amos Vieira, 979 East College saw the accident happen. He said that Spolum was crossing the square using due caution and that the driver was "careless." He said that the car slowed down after hitting the victim, but did not stop. Like Spolum, Mr. Vieira thinks the driver knew he had hit a man.

Mr. Vieira was not able to give any description of the car or persons within it.

Louis Elkins was at the scene of the accident but did not see it happen. He saw Mr. Spolum in the street and rendered assistance.

All witnesses were in agreement that after the car struck the victim it went on around the square. Apparently no one followed it. Police are investigating the accident.

Lois Smith Becomes Bride Of Paul Rust

Popular Local Couple United In Church Vows

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. in Central Christian church, Miss Lois Jane Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy T. Smith of Franklin, and Paul Rust, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heike Rust of 1302 W. State street, were united in marriage.

A program of traditional nuptial music preceded the ceremony. Mrs. Charles Geisler, organist, accompanied Joseph Hill, who sang "I Love You Truly," Bond; "Yours Is My Heart Alone," Lehar; and "The Lord's Prayer," Mollette. Mrs. Geisler played "Love's Song," Cadman; and "Oh Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," Wagner.

As Mrs. Geisler played the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party entered the church. The bride and bridegroom met before an altar banked with ferns and white gladioli, and stood between two tall candelabra as Dr. Malcolm Stewart of Illinois College received the double ring vows.

White Marquise Given
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white marquette over taffeta. The fitted bodice had a high neckline with a scalloped bertha. The floor-length hooped skirt was trimmed with scallops. Her fingertip veil of white net fell from a headpiece of sheer marquette trimmed with seed pearls.

The bride's only ornament was a brooch of gold and black enamel worn by her mother and grandmother at their weddings. She carried a white Bible adorned with gardenias and a shower effect of white satin ribbon, a gift of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. O. W. Subbelfield. The bride also carried a white Battenberg lace handkerchief made by her aunt, Lois Scott, over 50 years ago.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Martha Smith, who wore a gown of pink marquette over pink taffeta. She had a sweetheart hat of pink and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The best man was George Mohr of Jacksonville. Ushers were Louis Smith, twin brother of the bride, Edwin Smith, another brother, and Henry Shrope of Jacksonville.

The bride's mother was attired in a gray print bengal shear with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown and white bengal shear and white accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Reception At Colonial Inn
A reception at Colonial Inn followed the ceremony. The inn was beautifully decorated with cut flowers from the garden. A three tiered wedding cake, made by Miss Rhoda Scott, aunt of the bride, be decked the table.

Betty Ann Rust served cake and Mary Lee Coultas, punch. Assisting were Mrs. Charles Gibson, Charlotte Persigehl, Virginia Lewis, Tena Mae Rust, Marjorie Breckon and Mrs. C. D. Ransell.

Immediately after the reception the young couple left on a short wedding trip. For going away the bride chose a delectable dress with white accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. Rust, a graduate of Jacksonville high school and Illinois college, where he was a member of Phi Alpha literary society. He was active in college choir and in sports. During World War II, he served three years in the Army Air Corps.

To Reside In Franklin
Mr. and Mrs. Rust will reside in Franklin, where Mr. Rust will be employed as social science teacher and assistant coach in Franklin high school. At present, he is manager of the municipal swimming pool.

Out-of-town guests included: Miss Harriet Smith, South Orange, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breckon and daughter, Marjorie, of Mineral Point; Mrs. John Payne and son, John, of Long Island City, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. William Shindel and children, Edwardsville; Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Subbelfield, Janet, Joan and Judy Baughman, John W. Crick, Mr. and Mrs. William Sexton, Mrs. Adda M. Hommon, all of Ipa.

Ally Rust, Sheffield, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fleming, Vermont, Ill.; Jesse L. Norton and Miss Bettie Subbelfield, Chicago; and Mrs. Jean W. Sanderson and daughter, Letta, of Detroit; Ill.; Miss Marie Reaser, Elgin; Miss Charlotte Persigehl, Beardstown, and Mrs. Lorraine Ferreira, Huntley, Ill.

Stevenson Makes ICC Nonpartisan, Ups Members Pay

Springfield, Ill., July 27—(AP)—A bill making the Illinois commerce commission nonpartisan, raising members pay and extending their terms became law today.

Governor Stevenson, who proposed the new law, put it on the books with his signature.

He said the legislation is intended to attract high caliber men to commerce commission jobs and retain their services.

Commissioners will get $12,000 a year and be assured of five instead of two years tenure. No more than three of the commission's five members can belong to the same political party.

The old pay scale was $7,500 a year for members and $6,000 for the chairman.

In the past, a change in state political administrations usually has meant a complete turnover in commissioners. However, Stevenson broke with this tradition after his inauguration and retained two Republican appointees of former Governor Green—John D. Biggs and Edward A. Rosenstone.

Car Fails To Make Sharp Curve; Hits Tree Near I.S.D.

The sharp curve on U. S. Route 26, south of the Illinois School for the Deaf, was the scene of an accident at 9:15 o'clock Wednesday morning when a Chicago man lost control of his car, which was traveling west.

The 1949 Plymouth sedan left the pavement on the north side of the highway, ran wild for a short distance and collided with a tree.

Persons in the neighborhood were attracted to the accident by the continuous blowing of the horn on the car. The impact started the horn, which continued to blare until someone disconnected the wiring.

Dr. Claude Henley, who conducts an animal clinic nearby, was one of the first to reach the damaged car, and give assistance to the driver.

Sheriff Ralph Bourn soon determined that the driver is Frank Hull, 624 East 47th Place, Chicago. The sheriff called Passavant hospital on the two-way radio, with instructions to have a physician ready to attend the victim. Cooney's ambulance took Hull to the hospital where he was attended by Dr. Ellsworth Black.

Hull was rendered semi-conscious by the impact when the car struck the tree. He suffered a large cut on his forehead and injuries to the upper part of his chest. He is reported in good condition, the injuries not serious.

His damaged car was towed to the Brummett garage.

The sheriff and hospital authorities learned that Hull is employed by the Crane Plumbing Co. of Chicago. He is believed to have been making a vacation trip.

White Hall Woman Stationed At Port Of Embarkation

White Hall—Pvt. Nancy Steckel left recently to report for duty at the port of embarkation, Fort Mason in San Francisco, Calif., following a special eight weeks typing course at the Women's Army Corps training center, Camp Lee, Va.

Pvt. Steckel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steckel of White Hall, was selected for the course when she graduated from basic training and was promoted to the grade of private.

A graduate of White Hall high school, Pvt. Steckel attended Career college, Omaha, Neb., where she took tele typing. She worked for the Bell Telephone company in St. Louis and various other places before her enlistment.

Mr. Glines will show a film, "Realm of the Wild," and conduct a discussion of local forestry problems. He will answer questions on where to get trees, what trees to plant and the number per acre, details on planting, care, management, marketing of trees and other related subjects.

The meeting and program have been arranged by Ed Lamont, farm adviser, and Sherman Orr and H. F. Rigg of the soil conservation district office.

Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Former Red Begins Court Action To Stay In America

Chicago, July 26—(AP)—A former communist began court action today to keep from being thrown out of the United States.

He is Julius Fritz, 45, a member of the Communist party—by his admission—from 1932 to 1937. Fritz, a Chicagoan, was ordered deported last year at an immigration department hearing. The deportation later was upheld by the board of immigration appeals. He is a native of Germany and said he came to America in 1927.

He filed suit in Federal Court today to keep the government from deporting him.

Fritz' suit contends: (1) He was not a Communist party member when the alien registration act was passed in 1940.

(2) The act, during his membership in it, did not advocate forcible overthrow of the government.

(3) The section of the alien registration law ordering deportation of members and former members of seditious groups is unconstitutional.

White Hall—Miss Delores Suttles and Miss Shirley Dawdy have been chosen representatives of Greene county 4-H clubs to model dresses at the club sponsored style show at the state fair. They were selected on the merit of outstanding work on clothing projects.

Miss Barbara Thiebaud will represent the Greenfield club, and Miss Tina Brock, Carrollton.

Mrs. Clarice Harp and daughters, and Mrs. Norma Wald are attending the Southern Baptist camp this week at Lake Salteska near Nashville. Mrs. Wald is a member of the camp staff.

The local American Legion auxiliary will sponsor an ice cream social on the lawn of the A. J. Harding Floral company, Saturday.

76 Year Old White Hall Man Honored

White Hall—A family gathering honoring the 76th birthday anniversary of Ed Hammon was held recently at the Hammon home, with 43 members attending.

1000 Attend Opening Of Junior Livestock Show At New Berlin

An estimated crowd of 1,000 people attended the opening day, of the Junior Livestock show, Wednesday in New Berlin's North Park. The show, sponsored by the New Berlin Community club, drew entries of 250 head of swine by 4-H and F.F.A. members for the exhibitions.

A duroc barrow, owned by Elliott Walter of New Berlin, was named the grand champion. Reserve grand champion barrow is a cross-bred Hampshire-Chester White, owned by Kenneth Rowden of Loami.

Laubach Is Judge
L. E. Laubach of the agricultural department, Illinois State Normal university, served as judge at the swine show.

Thursday is cattle day at the show. Officials report 100 head already registered.

Grand champion and reserve champions will be named and a series of prizes awarded in the various divisions of dairy cattle, beef breeding, and fat cattle. Special prizes will be given by the American Short-horn Breeders association, the American Hereford association, the American Aberdeen Angus Breeders' association, the Guernsey Cattle club, and the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' association.

Serving as judge of the cattle show will be W. R. Queen, vocational agriculture instructor, Cuba. Judging will begin at 10 a. m.

Weather Man Says No Relief For At Least 2 More Days

By The Associated Press
Surges of hot air from the Gulf of Mexico kept much of the nation sweltering, Wednesday and blocked entry of cool, air mass from Canada.

A federal forecaster at Chicago predicted no relief for the heat belt "for at least another two days."

He said hot currents sweeping up from the gulf across the central and eastern states prevented Canadian breezes from cooling that area.

Pacific breezes continue to cool the area west of the Rockies, and fairly heavy rains have dropped the mercury in northern Minnesota, Wisconsin and Montana. Scattered showers in the Mississippi valley gave little relief from the hot humidity.

Wednesday afternoon temperatures for the country included: New York, cooled by a thundershower to 84; Detroit, 89; Washington, D. C., and Chicago, 93; Omaha, Neb., Kansas City and Minneapolis, all 85; Des Moines, 83; Milwaukee and Pittsburgh, 88; Rapid City, S. D., 92; Denver, 90; Billings, Mont., 77; San Diego, Calif., 72; and San Francisco, 65.

U.C.T. Picnic To Be Held Sunday At Boston Farm

The annual picnic of Council 182 of the United Commercial Travelers will be held next Sunday, July 31 at Floyd Boston's Maple Lawn Farm, located six miles east of Jacksonville on Route 36.

Dinner will be served at 12:40 Central Standard time.

The picnic arrangement is under the chairmanship of W. Raymond Davidson. Each one attending is asked to take two covered dishes or one covered dish and a salad, table service including glass and cup, and a card table. The meat, bread, dessert and all drinks will be furnished by local council.

Special entertainment has been planned for everyone attending.

Once Middleweight Champ, V. Dundee, Dies In Hospital

Glendale, Calif., July 27—(AP)—Vince Dundee, once-time world middleweight champion, died today after a seven-year stay in a hospital. He was 41.

Sanitarium officials said death was due to multiple sclerosis. He had entered the hospital in 1942 for treatment of a blocked nerve at the base of his brain.

The nerve condition led to a progressive paralysis that made him virtually helpless during his final years.

Dundee, born in Italy as Vincent Lazzaro, won the middleweight title by defeating Lou Brullard in Boston in 1933 and lost it the following year to Teddy Yarosz in Pittsburgh.

His brief reign as king of the 160 pounders and brother Joe's stay on the welterweight throne from 1927 to 1929 made the two probably the only brothers ever to hold world boxing championships.

In all, four Dundee brothers fought in the ring.

Secret Service Warns Of Counterfeit Money

The Treasury department's secret service has recently issued a bulletin warning Illinois residents to be on watch for counterfeit bills in ten and twenty dollar denominations.

Local bank officials stated Wednesday that thus far none of the bogus bills have appeared in Jacksonville. However they have been passed in Peoria, Rock Island, Springfield, and various points in southern Illinois.

The counterfeit bills purport to be issued by the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago.

Ten Dollar Note
The secret service says of the ten dollar note: "This note is printed on grayish paper with red ink lines simulating the genuine threads appearing on the front. Missing lines in Hamilton's hair give it an unnatural white appearance."

"On the back, some of the lines representing steps to the Treasury building are missing so that the area just under the columns at the entrance is almost solid white. All notes received to date have borne the serial number, G-20864706-B."

Confusion Has Resulted
Some confusion has resulted, they said, following the introduction of the new twenty dollar bill into circulation. The new bill includes Mr. Truman's balcony, and has more foliage around the White House.

They urged retention of any suspected bill and immediate contact with police.
